Skip Carey - We'll miss you.

I grew up in Chicago. As a young man, I watched games televised and recounted by great names like Harry Carey and Jack Brickhouse...

Both are gone.. and now Atlanta has lost a voice of its own, as Skip Carey - son of Harry, passed on in his sleep this past weekend.

Sad to see you go, Skip.

Damn, didn't know they were gone. I guess that probably means Frazier Thomas and Garfield Goose are gone too!!:(

I grew up, up there too. Born in Evanston.

Frazier died years back, as did "Mr. Greenjeans", and of course Captain Kangaroo.

Some things get better with age, like good cigars and wines, other things we miss..:(
